

Counselling and Guidance Objective and Course outcome

Objective: The curriculum is designed to achieve the core competencies and knowledge related to Guidance and counselling.

Outcomes:

1. To understand the concept, Need, Importance and process of Guidance and Counselling.
2. It enables students to differentiate between guidance and counselling
3. Analyses the importance of educational, Career, social and moral guidance services in the learning situation.
4. Equips learners with skills and techniques of Counselling